Discussions on violence against Women

2186. SHRI ANANTRAY'DEVSHANKER DAVE: Will the Minister of HOME AFFAIRS be pleased to state:

(a) the details of dowry deaths and rape cases reported in various parts of the country;

(b) the concrete steps taken by Government to avert such violence;

(c) whether Government are convening a conference of Ministry of Law and Home of States, to discuss the issues related to violence against women;

(d) if so, whether Government are bringing forward a legislation before Parliament; and

(e) if so, the details thereof?

THE MINISTER OF STATE IN THE MINISTRY OF HOME AFFAIRS (SHRI CH. VIDYASAGAR RAO): (a) A statement indicating the number of dowry deaths and rape cases reported in various parts of the country during 1997 and 1998 is annexed. (See below)

(b) 'Public Order' and 'Police' are State subjects as per the Seventh Schedule to the Constitution of India. The registration, investigation, detection and prevention of crimes, including crimes against women, is primarily the responsibility of the State Governments. However, the Government of India has been advising the State Governments, from time to time, to give more focussed attention to improving the administration of criminal justice system to ensure prevention of atrocities against women and other vulnerable sections of the society. The Government of India has also been extending financial assistance to the State Governments for improving their policing infrastructure.

(c) to (e) No proposal to hold such a conference is under consideration at present. However, the Government proposes to amend section 376 of the Indian Penal Code so as to provide death as one of the punishments for the offence of rape.
